March 22 6-8pm Watershed 1 Canon's Road, Bristol BS1 5TX	Green, Open & Social - 3 Words to Shape Bristol's Digital Future	Bristol is an unorthodox city. We like to take a different tack. This is certainly true when it comes to ICT. The city is home to businesses, public bodies and community groups who are leading the way in open source and energy efficient uses of technology and who are exploiting the power of social media to engage the city's communities in greener, smarter, more collaborative and open ways of achieving success. Through a mix of inspiring presentations, live theatre and video case studies, this FREE event aims to celebrate Open, Green and Social as 3 words/ideas that can continue to shape the Digital Future of Bristol... placing Bristol's public bodies, businesses and communities outside but also ahead of the crowd.	Kevin O'mally 0117 315 5254 Kevin.O'mally@bristol.gov.uk greenopenandsocial.aventbrite.com	Bristol Partnership and wider public

25 March 2010 3-7pm Malcolm X Communi ty Centre, St Pauls Bristol	'Shaping Our Future: Our Legacy, The Bristol 20:20 Plan and us.	Community groups and residents in Ashley, Lawrence Hill and Easton are invited to discuss and find out how they can make a difference and shape their City. Residents can raise challenges and opportunities following presentations from community lead organisations in Bristol, The Bristol Partnership and the Legacy Commission. How will our community benefit from the work of these organisations? What could the Bristol Partnership and partnership working across the city mean for our neighbourhoods? There is a challenge. Only 28.9% of respondents in Easton (2008 Census) were satisfied with the appearance of the streets and public places. Only 32.5% of respondents in Lawrence Hill agree that people treat others with respect in the neighbourhood. The event will conclude with refreshments and local entertainment	Tennis Russell trussell@cityofbristol.ac.uk T: 07876 340 450	Public Event

March 25 7:00pm Hamilton House, Stokes Croft, Bristol BS1 3QY	Bristol 20:20 Week Keynote Lecture George Ferguson "Planning for People not for Planners"	George Ferguson CBE was co-founder of Ferguson Mann Architects in 1979 and founded the national UK wide network of practices, Acanthus, in 1986. He has a wide variety of experience in architectural, masterplanning and regeneration projects, commencing with regeneration and historic building work that formed the foundation of the practice. This includes many award winning schemes such as the 'AT Bristol' Millennium project with its new urban spaces, Royal William Yard in Plymouth, and his own mould breaking Tobacco Factory mixed use project that has helped kick start the regeneration of South Bristol. He is a lateral thinker and has been a prime mover for change in attitude to planning and redevelopment in the South West Region and beyond. This led him to being awarded honorary degrees from the Universities of Bristol and of the West of England, and to being elected RIBA President (2003-2005) when he was noted for championing the causes of education, the environment and urbanism. He was appointed a CBE in the 2010 New Years Honours for services to architecture and to the community in the South West. A co-founder of the Academy of Urbanism, he writes, broadcasts and lectures extensively on environmental policy, planning and architectural matters.
