Faithnetsouthwest e-news for 26th March 2010

FAITHNETSOUTHWEST NEWS AND EVENTS

Faith to Engage - Black Led Churches in Bristol {Back to Top}

Faithnetsouthwest is working on a project funded by Faithworks's Faith to Engage project which in turn is funded by the Big Lottery as part of their national 'Faith to Engage project', to undertake a programme of work on the needs of Black-led churches in the South West region i.e. churches with membership from the Black Caribbean and Black African Christian communities. For the first year of this programme, we are concentrating on Black-led churches in the Bristol area. More specifically, the meetings would look at Black-led churches or groups in terms of current participation in local policy making and what barriers there are to participation, the numbers of people active in these churches in the Bristol area, access to support from other organisations, representation from these church communities on other networks or partnerships, whether they have support from other support services locally and what would help them fulfil their aims for working with their own community and in the wider community. This project will be extended to other parts of the South West region over the next three years. We will produce a report on the first year's work, with recommendations for public bodies and local infrastructure support services. We will also assist Black-led churches in accessing the support they want, as identified by the above meetings, including connecting them with support services that can provide ongoing support.

If you are able to help with this project, are in touch with or are a member of a Black-led church in Bristol, or would like to discuss this further, please contact Alistair Beattie, 0117 304 2298, alistair@faithnetsouthwest.org.uk

9 April - 11 April    The Art of Listening led by Gill Wyatt

18.00                    The Ammerdown Centre, Radstock, Bath BA3 5SW

We often assume we are listening to others when in fact our attention is still turned inward to listen to ourselves rather than turned outward towards the other. Deep listening requires a person to be still, to be open to the other, to suspend beliefs and assumptions, to allow one's self to be changed by this unique and precious meeting. Listening at this level is rare in our society. It is a spiritual and moral practice and becomes transformative for the individual and society. During the weekend, ideas from Krishnamurti, David Bohm, Needleham and Buber will be introduced to help participants explore this authentic being that allows the 'Art of Listening' to become a moral and spiritual experience. Gill Wyatt will facilitate this process using personal exploration, meditation and group discussion.

9 April -11 April Living Blessing-The Aramaic Lord's Prayer led by Dr. Neil Douglas-Klotz

{Back To Bath And North Somerset}

18.00 The Ammerdown Centre, Radstock, Bath BA3 5SW

During this retreat we will focus on a step-by-step journey of the heart through the prayer of Jesus in his original Aramaic language. We will experience Jesus' original prayer tradition of living creation, a tradition that reminds us that new beginnings happen every moment in the heart of the divine. In this journey to our own centre, we will also use contemplative prayer, walking meditation and a cycle of simple circle dances, called 'Dances of Universal Peace'

16th April - 18th April Enneagram One an Introduction led by Karen Webb

{Back To Bath And North Somerset}

18.00 The Ammerdown Centre, Radstock, Bath BA3 5SW

During this introductory workshop you will:

Discover the chief emotional and mental concerns of each type. Learn some of the patterns of behaviour and interaction created by these often unconscious habits of perception.

Recognise your own type and those of people you know, understand how security as well as stress 'changes' your personality

Learn to improve relationships of all kinds, by

- seeing yourself through the eyes of others
- understanding the different points of view of each type
- realising how you react to different types

Start to discover how to use your 'negative' patterns to fuel growth.

19th April to 23rd April Struggle for Authenticity led by Sr. Germaine O'Neill

{Back To Bath And North Somerset} {Back to Top}

18.00 The Ammerdown Centre, Radstock, Bath BA3 5SW

As we go through life adapting to situations and trying to protect ourselves from the wounds of life, it is possible to create a unique variety of defence structures designed to protect the EGO. These egocentric patterns make up the false self. It is in confronting these false selves and embracing them that we can free the true self and live in a more authentic way.

FUNDING {Back to Top}

Grants of up to £6000 available to support inter faith activity within local communities

{Back To Funding} {Back to Top}

Faiths in Action, a £4m grant programme, opened a second round of funding on 12 November. Faith, inter faith, voluntary and community organisations and groups in England can come forward and apply for a grant of up to £6000.

Administered by the Community Development Foundation (CDF) on behalf of Communities and Local Government (CLG), Faiths in Action aims to bring communities together, promoting positive relationships between people of different religions and beliefs. It is hoped the grants will support a wide variety of local activities in a range of community settings. This includes innovative new ideas as well as ‘tried and tested’ approaches. The fund contributes to the delivery of the Government’s inter faith strategy as set out in ‘Face to Face and Side by Side: A framework for partnership in our multi faith society’, published in July 2008 (www.communities.gov.uk/publications/communities/interfaithdialogue). The fund aims to support local activities and initiatives that have a direct link to one or more of the four building blocks set out in this framework.

Faiths in Action welcomes projects aimed at women and young people. It also encourages working in partnership, to improve local communities through interaction and sharing of ideas.

Please note the intention of the Faiths in Action programme is to fund projects/ activities running in one locality; not across one or many localities or Government regions. Projects must have a clear link to a named local project.

Funding will be awarded to successful organisations from April 2010, to be spent by the end of March 2011.

Please note that this round of funding will operate as a rolling programme. That is, there is no formal deadline for receipt of applications. Applications will be accepted in the date and time order that they are received by CDF, until the total value of the eligible, relevant applications received equals the overall value of the fund.

Round 2 of the fund is currently open for applications. Completed applications can be sent in at any time either electronically or by post. For more information and to find out how to apply, please visit,

Forced marriage: Implication for agencies organisations {Back to Top} {Back To Resources}

Men, women and young people from Bangladeshi, Indian and Pakistani communities, plus faith leaders, from the North of England have taken part in a Bristol University study looking to improve support services for victims of forced marriage and domestic violence.

The report reiterates the sensitivities about state interference in this sphere, and noticed that forced marriage is a live issue; many domestic abuse services did not recognise issues that particularly affect BME females; forced marriage services were even more limited; and typically awareness of official policies and guidelines on forced marriage was low. Copies of the report can be downloaded from
