

Voluntary Value

Preparing for the European Social Fund in 2010 – unlocking the potential for voluntary and community delivery

9.30am – 2.00pm
Thursday
3rd December 2009
Somerset College of Arts and Technology
Taunton

This South West Forum event is for organisations who deliver (or would like to deliver) ESF projects in the South West Competitiveness area, whether as a provider or a sub-contractor.

Come and find out what the ESF can do for you in 2010

- ★ Share your experiences of the ESF commissioning processes. What are your messages for the Department for Work and Pensions, Learning and Skills Council or the National Offender Management Service?
- ★ Promote your work in the exhibition area
- ★ Connect with current/potential ESF providers and sub-contractors.

Hear from:

- ★ Policy makers on changes to the ESF funding framework for 2010
- ★ Frontline delivery organisations that have made the most of ESF opportunities
- ★ ESF providers and subcontractors.

This event will showcase good practice and champion the role of voluntary and community organisations in adding value to ESF funded work. It will focus on the value of partnership-working between providers and sub-contractors.

Speakers and Contributors

Adrian Bailey (Chair), Deputy Director, Regional Employment and Skills Partnership

Sarah Beeson, Head of ESF, Government Office for the South West

Simon Charters, Regional Coordinator (Voluntary Value), South West Forum

Nigel Howells, Head of Competitiveness, South West Regional Development Agency

A panel discussion will give you the chance to put your questions to the speakers.

You will also hear from two case studies, each delivered by an ESF provider/sub-contractor partnership.
