REGISTER NOW FOR 'CYCLING CITY' WORK

Bristol City Council and South Gloucestershire Councils are inviting businesses and voluntary community sector organisations to register their interest in bidding for Greater Bristol Cycling City contracts. The contracts will include: running high-quality cycling events, organising and running bike repair workshops, devising and running education sessions for adults and children, and developing other services to put the fun into cycling for people who've hardly ever or never ridden a bike. To find out more visit

<http://www.bristol.gov.uk/ccm/content/press-releases/2009/mar/cyclingproviderprocurement.en>

FREE WORKSHOPS FOR SOUTH BRISTOL NEIGHBOURHOODS

Knowle West Media Centre (KWMC) is offering Neighbourhood Partnerships in South Bristol free workshops to help them use the internet to influence the council decisions such as e-petitions and viewfinder debates. Help is also available on how to use IT to improve their environment/surroundings with workshops on how people can vote for their favourite local spaces, say where's too noisy - and how to improve that, how to use the computer and the internet. For more details contact Makala Cheung, KWMC Digital Neighbourhoods & Communications Coordinator on (0117) 353 2895 or email <mailto:makala@kwmc.org.uk>

SHIREHAMPTON COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER CELEBRATE 37 YEARS

Is Shirehampton Community News the longest running amateur local free community paper? The newspaper has just celebrated its 37th continuous year of publication with a special thanks to the local trades people, who have supported them by advertising and their readers who have supplied them with stories. Find out more about Shirehampton Community Newsletter at: <http://www.shire.org.uk/shire.php?edition=445>

QUARRY PARK CLEAN UP

Volunteers are needed to help clean up graffiti in Quarry Park play area in Henleaze. Play equipment there has been a constant target for graffiti and some of it is especially difficult to remove. Anti-Graffiti Group member Lynn Ingleton who lives nearby, regularly cleans up what she can but graffiti on the equipment made up of log rolls can't be cleaned and has to be painted over with enamel paint. Once that is done the paintwork can be cleaned if the graffiti vandals come back. A clean up and painting day is to be organised on a Wednesday in late April/early May. Liz would like anyone who can help to email her at <mailto:henleaze.antigrffiti@googlemail.com>

BUILDING PRIDE IN SPEEDWELL

Residents In Speedwell have launched A New Project called the Speedwell Pride Project (SPP). Working in partnership with the St George Neighbourhood Partnership they are teaming up with local services to turn Speedwell into an area that everyone can be proud of. Detached workers will be out and about on Friday evenings (in Speedwell) for young people to stop them and tell them what they think is needed in the area. To get involved or find out more contact Mary Hastings on 07855 222 320

SPEEDWELL AND ST.GEORGE HAVE GOT TALENT COMPETITION

St George NP is looking at ways of providing opportunities for local young people to showcase their creative skills and talents. Plans are underway for a talent competition for young people. The organiser would like to hear from anyone who can offer help or support. If you would like to help please email Grenville Johnson <mailto:victorianhouse@blueyonder.co.uk>
