

Certificate in Counselling Skills

P/time course starting September 2020

Stroud & Cheltenham courses available or running on-line if Lockdown persists

Why study this course?

The Certificate in Counselling Skills training course is for you if:

- You want to develop counselling skills & explore the nature of counselling work.
- You use counselling skills in your work or wish to work in the field of counselling.
- You want to develop your listening & communication skills.

This highly acclaimed year-long course aims to develop ways of understanding patterns of human growth and behaviour and increase your self-awareness.

The content includes experiential seminar work on counselling skills and attitudes as well as a self-awareness group. You will complete 30-weeks of training and development plus one Saturday per term.

This course is an entry requirement for the GCS Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling & is also recognised for Diploma training by other training providers.
