1625 Independent People JOB DESCRIPTION

POST Asylum and Refugees Intensive Support Worker

RESPONSIBLE TO: Asylum and Refugees Team Leader

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES: Provide intensive and assertive support to a small number of care leavers and children in need, as part of our Intensive Support accommodation and support services working specifically with Unaccompanied Asylum Seeking Young People settling in Bristol and South Gloucestershire.

Achieve improved, sustainable outcomes for young people and join up services provided to them, acting as a key interface between 1625 Independent People, local authority leaving care services, specialist internal and external services, learning and work providers and voluntary sector delivery partners.

This objective should be achieved in line with the organisation's ethos of keeping young people at the heart of everything that we do.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. SUPPORT

- 1.1 Ensure that every young person supported has access to a "trusted adult", supporting them to establish sustainable relationships.
- 1.2 Provide person-centred and culturally sensitive support, including in relation to asylum claims and immigration status.
- 1.3 Work assertively and persistently with young people, to ensure that they engage with the support service and meet their accommodation responsibilities.
- 1.4 Carry out an integrated assessment of young people's needs and strengths, ensuring that support plans are integrated with young people's Care Plans/Pathway plans, avoiding duplication.
- 1.5 Identify young people's key "drivers" and interests, and work with them to meaningfully occupy their time; accessing and sustaining opportunities, so they can achieve their full potential and develop resilience.
- 1.6 Support meaningful contact within kinship and support networks where it is safe to do so.
- 1.7 Enabling integration into community life including social and religious (where appropriate).

- 1.8 Work with young people to maximise their income and manage their money effectively.
- 1.9 Prepare young people to successfully move on to more sustainable accommodation.
- 1.10 Be adaptable, responsive, and flexible, intensifying levels of support to individual young people at service entry point, at times of crisis and move on.
- 1.11 Be mindful of young Asylum seekers and Refugees mental health needs and facilitate access to appropriate support.
- 1.12 Work flexibly throughout the week, including occasional out of hours, when young people may need support and encouragement and when other services may be limited or unavailable.

2. JOINED UP WORK

- 2.1 Communicate regularly with lead professionals and case managers internally and externally (including Education, employment and training services and FE Colleges), co-ordinating and attending multi-agency meetings, advocating on behalf of young people to facilitate the most appropriate services for them.
- 2.2 Develop links internally and externally to ensure YP have access to relevant specialist services (including advice and immigration services).
- 2.3 Support young people through transitions into independence and from youth to adult services.
- 2.4 Actively involve young people and other service providers in the review of their progress and future support needs.
- 2.5 Regularly share information and convene early intervention 'stability' meetings with external partners to jointly resolve any difficulties that young people face or challenges that they may present.

3. HOUSING MANAGEMENT

- 3.1 Ensure that young people fully understand their accommodation rights and responsibilities supporting them to become 'good neighbours' and work regularly with young people so that they contribute to the upkeep of their accommodation.
- 3.2 Assess, interview, sign up and induct young people to the accommodation and support service.
- 3.3 Use relevant local housing access systems and work closely with commissioners and local authority housing teams to manage referrals and exits from the service.
- 3.4 Actively contribute to management of the health and safety of all properties, including the safe control of property keys.
- 3.5 Identify damage or defects in the accommodation, furniture or fittings and undertake regular property checks; co-ordinating access to properties as required.
- 3.6 Co-ordinate multi-agency responses to anti-social behaviour or other significant incidents, working with the landlord and neighbours as directed.

3.7 Work with the team manager to ensure that income is maximised for the service.

4. YOUNG PEOPLE'S INVOLVEMENT

4.1 Promote young people's participation and involvement within and outside of the organisation, to shape and improve the way services are delivered, and to contribute to policy and procedural changes.

5 OTHER ORGANISATIONAL AND GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 Adopt, in all aspects of the role, the organisation's psychologically informed framework.

5.2 Safeguard the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk, working within 1625 Independent People's safeguarding policies, Southwest Child Protection Procedures and local procedures for safeguarding adults at risk.

5.3 Carry out day-to-day administration functions to ensure that all records and files are maintained and stored securely in line with the Data Protection legislation.

5.4 Provide a diverse and culturally sensitive service, ensuring that anti-discriminatory practice and equity of opportunity are promoted within all aspects of Independent People's services.

5.5 Develop expertise in at least one support specialism and take responsibility for championing this across the team, and organisation as relevant. This includes attending specialist training as required and presenting information to teams verbally and in writing.

5.6 Promote a safe working environment in line with policies on Health and Safety, highlighting any significant deficiencies to a senior colleague.

The list of tasks is not exclusive, and duties may be varied from time to time, with the job description being subject to review and periodic amendments.

Values based Competency Development Framework

The competency development framework is a set of core skills, behaviours and attitudes required by all colleagues that define “how” we are expected to approach our work, and sits alongside “what” we do, as defined in our job descriptions. The framework ensures that we work in a way that exhibits behaviours aligned to 1625IP values, therefore leading to optimal performance.

The framework is a tool that enables discussions around recruitment and selection, supervision, performance and development. It helps to define the standards for each job role against which colleagues and managers can identify current strengths and develop training and development plans.

At 1625IP we are driven by Social Justice and Passion: We strive to do something that matters and see the results of our work in social outcomes. We show pride in our work to improve young people’s lives and deliver the best service we can.

*We are guided by our Values of Ownership / Integrity / Humility / Empathy / Equity

Ownership	Empathy	Integrity	Humility	Equity

And deliver through our competencies: Taking responsibility / Empathetic communication / Emotionally aware / Delivering quality / Transparency & inclusivity / Working collaboratively / Developing capability

Taking responsibility	Empathetic communication	Emotionally aware	Delivering quality	Transparency & inclusivity	Working collaboratively	Developing capability
Showing pride and passion for role and purpose, leading by example, taking ownership and seeing things through to fruition.	The ability to communicate with clarity, integrity and enthusiasm, listening to and respecting the needs, responses and opinions of others.	Seeking to understand different perspectives, acting with sensitivity, compassion and warmth. Adopting emotionally intelligent behaviours and controlling emotions in difficult or challenging situations.	Delivering objectives professionally and efficiently, delivering the aims of 1625IP which is to put young people’s needs and aspirations at the centre, and executing in a timely manner without bias.	Building trust by being open about what we have done and why we have done it, keeping promises and valuing difference, diversity and inclusion, ensuring fairness and opportunity for all.	The ability to build relationships with people from diverse backgrounds and form effective partnerships both internally and externally.	Pro-actively maintaining and developing job knowledge and skills and promoting learning and growth in others.

Each competency has a description and a list of behaviours which indicate that a person is displaying that particular competence.

Each competency is split into three levels, which are intended to be used flexibly to allow for a good fit with different roles. The levels are designed to be cumulative, so those working at higher levels should also demonstrate each preceding level’s behaviours, and all colleagues can aspire to develop the highest level of competency. Higher levels of competency are required for some roles, such as leadership and senior practitioner roles, as defined in the role profile.

- Level 1 – required behaviours for all colleagues.
- Level 2 – all colleagues should seek to demonstrate these behaviours. They are required behaviours for some roles, including junior leadership and some specialist roles.
- Level 3 – aspirational behaviours for colleagues looking to develop into leadership roles. They are required behaviours for those in managerial and leadership positions and some senior practitioner roles.

Role profiles also include Technical Competencies: the experience and knowledge required to carry out the role (for example, a role in Finance may require that the individual was numerate and had some prior financial experience, knowledge and/or qualifications). These are defined in more detail in existing job descriptions
