

Illustration by Femke de Jong

Women's Suffrage Centenary Celebrations

Lantern Parade

A lantern parade and lantern making workshops to celebrate 100 years of votes for women

Meeting point:

Tuesday 6th February 2018, 6pm
Berkeley Square, Bristol, BS8 1HB

Culminating at College Green with a choir performance

How to get involved:

Come to the parade wearing suffragette
colours: Green & Purple

Attend a workshop to make a lantern see overleaf

To make a lantern
at home visit:
glueyfingers.wordpress.com

(Strictly no candles and no open flames)

HM Government

University of BRISTOL

Drop into any of the following free workshops to make a special lantern, for all ages. Everyone is welcome!

For sustainability please bring a torch, bike light or fairy lights.

Bishopston Library
BS7 8BN

Sat 27th Jan, 2-5pm

Barton Hill Settlement
BS5 0AX

Sun 28th Jan, 2-5pm

University of Bristol
Student Union
BS8 1LN

Mon 29th Jan,
5.30-8.30pm

Elephant House
Bedminster
BS3 1BG

Sat 3rd Feb, 2-5pm

Bristol Museum & Art Gallery
BS8 1RL*

Sun 4th Feb, 11-4pm

*includes talk by historian Madge Dresser

For updated workshop details visit: www.thelamplighters.org.uk

Facebook event: Search 'Lantern Parade - Celebrating Suffrage!'

For more info & events visit: www.bristolwomensvoice.org.uk