

Do you want to empower women to take control of their sexual health?

Are you interested in mobilising your community to talk about HIV prevention, specifically PrEP?

Brigstowe and Prepster have come together on a project to empower women to take control of their sexual health and prevent HIV.

We are recruiting volunteers to become Peer Mobilisers where you will be trained in HIV prevention (PrEP) to then be able to pass the message on to your peers, communities and networks.

You will receive full training, continuous support as well as out of pocket expenses.

If you are interested in being part of this exciting project, or would like to find out more, please contact Acomo or Lauren on 0117 955 5038 or info@brigstowe.org

This role is open to all self-identifying women. We especially welcome involvement from women in communities affected by HIV, from a minority ethnic background, trans women, sex workers, speakers of languages other than English, and migrants.

PrEP is a pill you can take to prevent you from contracting HIV. Please note to apply for this role you do not need to be an expert in PrEP as you will receive full training!
