

Thursday 19th March 2020 - 10.00-11.15 (10/15 minutes discussion)

UNDERSTANDING FORCED MARRIAGE – 1 HOUR CPD ACCREDITED
TRAINING (£10)

Forced Marriage is a criminal offence

'You have the right to choose'

Sabeena Pirooz Director of the Sky Project will be providing a 1 hour accredited training session on the 19th March 2020. Tickets are £10 per session (plus a small administration charge) with all monies raised being put back into the charity. The training will take place at:

Bristol Law Society, 12 Colston Avenue Bristol, BS1 4ST

Tickets can be purchased on Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/understanding-forced-marriage-tickets-94623923703>

The session is aimed at developing an understanding of forced marriage and will cover:

- Definition of Forced Marriage, why it occurs across different cultures, women and men.
- Difference between a Forced Marriage and an Arranged Marriage.
- Key warning signs of Forced Marriages.
- The legal position.
- Supporting someone experiencing Forced Marriage and/or Honour Based Violence.

Who is the training for?

All professionals that may come into contact with forced marriage victims such as Social Workers, Education Staff, Legal Sector, Police Officers, Health Sector, Voluntary Sector etc
Places are limited so please reserve your space through Eventbrite using the link above or contact Zara Liedl at zarabrook@hotmail.com